The worksheet consists of ten rows of tracing practice. Each row is set on a grid of blue vertical lines and purple horizontal lines. A pink horizontal line is drawn below the dashed line in each row. The first row shows a solid black zigzag line on the left, followed by a dashed grey zigzag line for tracing. The subsequent rows show only the dashed grey zigzag line for tracing.
